

The Bullring is a high energy and incredibly busy cafe in the heart of the University of Guelph. We pride ourselves on serving fresh to order food with many diverse options including gluten free, vegan, vegetarian and meat dishes. We have a broad spectrum of customers including students, staff and faculty at the UofG as well as the community at large.

OPEN STAGE HOST - The Bullring

Reporting to the manager on duty; the OPEN STAGE HOST is required to actively participate the Bullring Open Stage Night. The OPEN STAGE HOST must be available on Wednesday evenings from 645pm-12midnight during the Fall & Winter Semesters. They must be a musician in some capacity who has passion for performance.

They are responsible for:

- Organizing the sign up for performances that evening.
- To act as the emcee and fill any spots so that music is continuous through out the evening.
- To encourage a diverse offering of all music, performances, spoken word etc.
- To ensure all Bullring musical equipment is maintained and functioning.
- To clean up, put away and generally tidy the stage at the end of the evening.
- To act in good faith on behalf of the Bullring.

Term	Wednesday Evenings – Winter 2019 Semester Rotating schedule approx. 3 times per month January, February, March. (No Open Stage on Reading Week) Pending positive performance - Renewal for Sept 2019-Jan 2020.
Hours	6:45p-12:00a
Wage	$100 for the evening

TRAINING

- Shadow shift(s) with senior Bullring Open Stage Host

COMPETENCIES

- Customer Service
- Leadership
- Time Management
- Communication
- Self Management
- Teamwork
- Flexibility/Managing Change
- Values Diversity
- Commitment to Health & Safety

WORK CONDITIONS:

As the Open Stage Host you are required to work Wednesday evenings on a rotating basis. These hours will be scheduled with the other Open Stage hosts. While on shift you will be required to be on your feet for several hours at a time. There will be live music playing and it can be loud.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Previous experience as an emcee/host
- Demonstrated customer service
- Energetic and enthusiastic personality
- Strong communication skills
- Dependable & Reliable
- Must commit to Wednesday evenings Winter 2019 semester

Deadline for application is December 14th 2018

Resumes & cover letters should be submitted via email: bullring@uoguelph.ca

Auditions will take place in January

For a complete copy of the Bullring Hiring Policy, visit <http://csaonline.ca/about/bylaws-policies>. The Bullring hiring policy is found in Appendix E of the Policy Manual, Section 2

The Bullring is committed to employment equity and to the creation of a working environment that is welcoming for all applicants. We particularly encourage applications from women, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, racialized people, international students and members of the Queer communities.