

Practice Calling In/Calling Out

In pairs, take turns being SPEAKER and RESPONDER to the following:

1. What is their problem? They're always playing the race card.
2. If I could get hired for diversity, I'd stop complaining.
3. Look at you! You have such a fantastic year-round tan!
4. How are we supposed to get to know each other if you're always sitting with your cultural group?
5. Are you kidding me? I'm the least racist person – I have friends who are Black.
6. I don't think she'll fit into the culture of that organization. No one will understand that accent.
7. Why is she struggling with course work? I mean, she's Asian, right?
8. I find Muslim women like you to be so exotic!
